chapter 11: Living Together

藍より青し ―これまでのあらすじ―

Second year college student, Hanabishi Kaoru was on his way home. When he met a girl wearing a tsumugi. Since she appeared to be lost, and he was getting off at the same stop as she was, Kaoru went with her to find the person that she was looking for. However, the address written on the slip of paper turned out to be a vacant lot. Afterwards, he asked this girl if there were other clues to finding this person, and she took out a photo. This photo had a picture of two kids, who were in fact, Kaoru and herself! Afterwards, this girl named Sakuraba Aoi told him something that really surprised him.

Over the last 18 years, Sakuraba Aoi was brought up to become Kaoru's fiancée. However, because Kaoru was disowned by the Hanabishi family, the engagement was cancelled. Aoi, for the sake of being with him, went to locate him and to ask him to return to the Hanabishi family. Even though Kaoru was attracted by Aoi's beauty, due to certain reasons he could not return to the Hanabishi family.

Kaoru's father was the original Hanabishi heir, but he did not married Kaoru's mother officially. Since Kaoru's father died when he was five years old, Kaoru was taken from his mother and raised as the next Hanabishi heir. However, Kaoru could not tolerate the harsh abusive environment, and he ran from the Hanabishi home. Therefore no matter how much Aoi pleaded with Kaoru he would never return to the Hanabishi family.

After hearing Kaoru's response Aoi was determined to stay with Kaoru and abandon the Sakuraba family because she could never forget Kaoru. They stayed together for a night. They then gained the support of Kayurasaki Miyabi and Aoi's mother, and the two lovers can finally be together.
